

best online casinos for usa players

In the UK, online poker is legal and regulated by The US Gambling Commission. Other countries in the EU with regulated markets include France and Spain and Italy; but not in the US. The situation of online power in various parts of the world is medium. More than half of the states allow live poker (where it is legal) but not in Georgia, with such an ambiguous law that poker enthusiasts have found ways to open a ship-based card club without explicit licenses to do so. Poker legislation: legal in my state? Procter & Gamble
