Call of Duty: Warzone Mobile is an upcoming first-person shooter game developed and published by Activision.[3] &#129522; It was announced in September 2024.[4] In November 2024, the beta version launched in Australia.
Currently the beta version is &#129522; available in Australia, Chile, Norway, Sweden and Germany.[6] The beta version received generally positive reviews from Tom's Guide Marshall Honorof &#129522; and IGN's Emma Matthews.[3][7] Recent developments have indicated a delay in the official release of Call of Duty: Warzone Mobile, as &#129522; reported by Eurogamer.[8] The revised timeline now points to a scheduled deployment in spring 2024.[9] This delay has been met &#129522; with some disappointment among fans, however many others view that it underscores Activision's commitment to delivering a polished and optimized &#129522; mobile gaming experience, potentially setting a new standard within the genre. Engadget provided perspectives on the anticipation surrounding the game &#129522; and speculated on the reasons behind the strategic delay.[9] Call of Duty: Warzone Mobile is known to feature 120 player lobbies &#129522; with a confirmed set of game modes consisting of &quot;Battle Royale&quot; and &quot;Resurgence&quot;.[10] Both game modes consist of &quot;Solo&quot;, &quot;Duo&quot;,
&quot;Trio&quot;, and &quot;Quad&quot; lobby types for both types of game modes. Currently the intention is to have the game be &#129522; released free to play without any subscription necessary.[6]
