<p&gt;What is European roulette?&lt;/p&gt;
<p&qt;&lt;/p&qt;
<p&gt;There is one main difference between European roulette and American rou lette. The latter has 38 pockets and two zeros
                                                    0 and 00
                                                                whereas in Europe an roulette, the wheel has 37 pockets and just one zero.</p&gt; <p&qt;&lt;/p&qt;
<p&qt;The sequence of the numbers on a European roulette wheel is also dif ferent. For example, on the right side of the zero pocket, you will find nine low black numbers
                      2, 4, 6, 8, 10, 11, 13, 15 and 17
                                                            and nine high red on 19, 21, 23, 25, 27, 30, 32, 34 and 36.</p&gt;
<p&gt;&lt;/p&gt;
<p&gt;On the left side,
                           there are nine high black numbers 20, 22, 24, 26
                                                      1, 3, 5, 7, 9, 12, 14, 16 a
, 28, 29, 31, 33 and 35
                          and nine
                                      low red ones
nd 18.</p&qt;
<p&gt;&lt;/p&gt;
<p&gt;Advantages to European roulette?&lt;/p&gt;
<p&gt;&lt;/p&gt;
<p&gt;House edge
                      lf
                            you are hoping to better your chances of winning whe n playing roulette, then you are always better off playing European roulette
because there is one number fewer on the table and this reduces the house edge, which is the most important factor to consider. The odds are 1 in 37 on getti ng a single number in European roulette but 1 in 38 for the American version, however the payout on both remains the same at 35/1.</p&gt;
<p&gt;&lt;/p&gt;
<p&gt;Different sequence
                             As mentioned,
                                               the sequence of numbers on a Euro
