

poker star casino

A staking deal is where a poker player gives another player some money to play. In return, the staker receives a percentage of the profits. For example, if Player A pays for Player B to play in a $100 tournament and they agree on a 50% split, then Player A would receive 50% of the profits.