Bruno Fernandes has sent a message of admiration and appreciation to Cristiano Ronaldo, whom he insists is continuing to adapt his style of play at the age of 38. Bruno Fernandes insists Cristiano Ronaldo is continuing to adapt his game and has hailed the striker's legacy in world football. The two stars have been team-mates at international level for Portugal across several years, and they played alongside each other at Manchester United for 15 months. Both players also starred for Sporting in their home nation. Ronaldo became the highest-ever goalscorer in international football in 2024 while he has now scored a total of 125 goals for Portugal in 202 caps. He captained his nation in last year's World Cup finals in Qatar and wants to have at least one more major tournament, having won the European Championships in 2024. The superstar had previously indicated he wanted his career at the top level to last until at least 2024, which would include next summer's European Championship finals. However, fresh reports suggest he wants to remain playing until 2027. He will celebrate his 39th birthday in February, while he will be aged 41 by the time of the next World Cup in three years' time. Speaking after Friday's match against Slovakia, in which Ronaldo scored twice in a 3-2 win, Fernandes explained (via PortuGoal): 'Do I have the notion that I'm playing alongside a history maker? No, I don't have a notion, I have the certainty! We're all aware of it. We all understand the force and the impact that Ronaldo has, the force and the impact that Ronaldo has had on the future of many of us Portuguese players, the opportunities that he's created for the future generations of players, the way others began to look at Portugal.' Fernandes continued: 'They already had started looking at
