A +1.5 spread is commonly seen in baseball betting, the standard line for MLB. This spread means the underdog must win outright or lose by exactly one run to cover the spread. Alternatively, a -1.5 spread means that the favorite must win by at least two runs. Many baseball games are decided by fewer than two runs, so a bet on the total number of goals, points, or runs scored in a match or game. For example, in soccer, if you place a bet over 1.5 goals, it means you are predicting that there will be two or more goals scored in the match.
